In the business meetings of the church he was often Moderator, and did a great deal of baptizing and other official work for this his home church.

He was pastor, at different times, of Rocky Valley, Dandridge, Pawpaw Hollow, Six-Mile, Pleasant Grove, and Ellijoy churches. He was a sympathetic and faithful pastor. Everybody had confidence in him and loved him. The young people reverenced him; the older people were devoted to him. He was a great stay to his home church, and in Dumplin Valley, where he lived eighty years, he was a great lump of rock-salt. He was a benediction to any community where he was known.

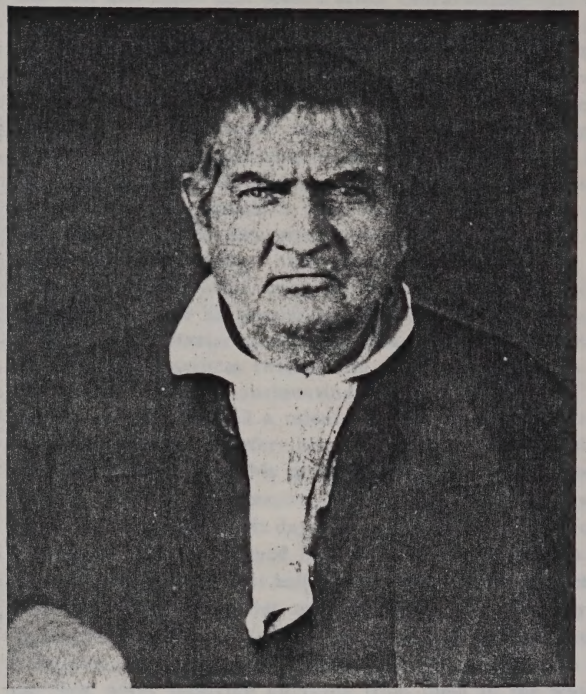
"Uncle Mike" Cate, the old people tell me, had very great power in revival meetings, his sermons and exhortations often having an electrical effect upon his hearers. His solemnity of manner was awe-inspiring; his serious, dignified bearing was impressive. There was no levity, or foolishness, about him. He was a fountain of sympathy, and was greatly in earnest. He was alike successful as a pastor and as a revivalist. He was not a traveling missinoary evangelist and collecting agent, like his brothers that were preachers; but holding fast to the center—his home church and community—he maintained a steady and glowing light, which shone far out into the darkness and guided many a wanderer to the Shepherd's fold.

July 2, 1890, Brother Cate closed his earthly career, wept for as a citizen, honored as a "father in Israel," his memory cherished by all who knew him.

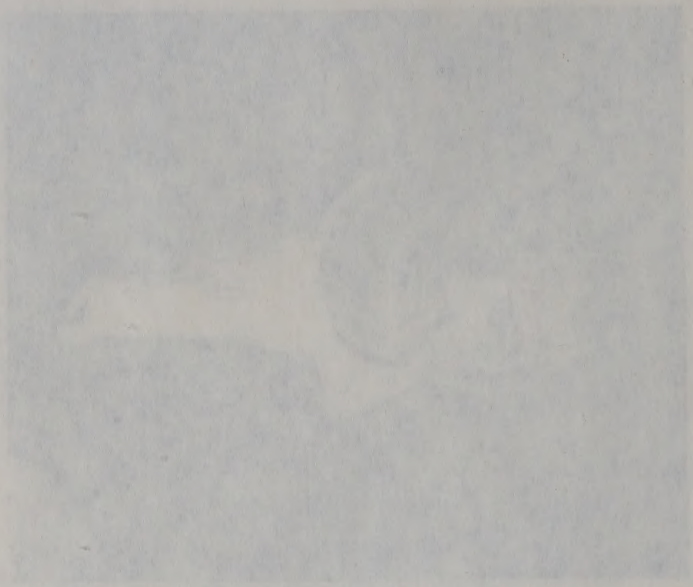
ELI CLEVELAND.

In the cemetery of the old Sweetwater Church, in Monroe County, not far from Philadelphia, rests the remains of one of the earliest pioneer settlers of the Sweetwater Valley. From his tombstone I copy this inscription: "In memory of Rev. Eli Cleveland; born October 1, 1781; died November 23, 1859. Born a sinner; saved by grace."

The Clevelands are a numerous and noted family, both in England and in the United States. A book has been written which gives the history of the family as far back as the year 1200, showing the varied spelling of the name to be, "Cliffland, Clyveland, Cliveland, Clieveland, Cleaveland, and Cleveland—the last spelling being the one adopted by the members of the family who came to this State" (Lenoir).



REV. ELI CLEVELAND.



The subject of our sketch was born in Wilkes County, N. C. He was a son of Capt. Robert Cleveland and a nephew of Col. Benjamin Cleveland, both of Revolutionary "fame," making many campaigns together, "fighting the tories." The father of these two American patriots, the grandfather of Eli Cleveland, it is thought, settled in Orange County, Va., about the year 1700.

Eli Cleveland was married to a Miss Mary Ragan, of Ashe County, N. C., December 28, 1803. To this union were born eight children, four sons and four daughters.

He was baptized the third Sabbath in December, 1813, uniting with a Baptist Church in Ashe County, N. C., having obtained a hope in Christ a short time previous. Soon afterward he commenced exhorting and preaching to sinners to "flee the wrath to come." He moved with his family to Knox County, Tenn., in 1817. He was ordained to the ministry in 1818, by request of Beaver Ridge Church. He moved to Sweetwater Valley in 1821. He united with the church at Sweetwater the fourth Saturday in January, 1822. He was chosen moderator of the church soon afterward, and retained the office until his death. This being a newly settled country, he preached much and was instrumental in building up and establishing a number of churches. He also bult up a fine estate and became the owner of several negroes. He had some $30,000 loaned out, mostly to farmers, at 6 per cent interest. He gave the ground for the meeting house and cemetery of the old Sweetwater Church, and largely built the house, boarding the hands and furnishing teams, and negroes to drive them, as well as to do other work in connection with the building. The house was built of brick, and Elder Robert Snead was a colaborer with him in building the house, Brother Snead being an expert hand at moulding and laying brick and, having charge of the building, put his indellible mark on the house by putting up the front wall with his own hands out of the brick he himself had made.

Eli Cleveland was a good practical surveyor, and did a good deal of surveying in connection with the entry and settlement of the new and fertile farms in the "Ocoee district," thus helping his neghbors to establsh their lines and corners. I have been told the town of Cleveland was named for him; at any rate, it was named for the Cleveland family. As to education, culture, style of preaching, etc., a venerable brother, who knew him well and heard him preach often, characterized him as a "good mathematical man, well versed in the Scriptures, sympathetic, powerful in exhortation, a great peacemaker, and a genuine missionary; he was very simple and plain, and never tried to go into the deep doctrines of the Bible before an audience." As to personal characteristics and appearance, he is described as a man of plain manners and plain speech, having perfectly black hair (in his younger days), a fine physique, weight about 200 pounds, a fine conversationalist, and possessed of a voice of very great power, but a voice that was full of pathos and tears. "His exhortations and appeals had a most wonderful effect upon his hearers. Repentance was the great theme of his preaching, and hundreds of souls were brought to the Savior under the influence of his ministry." His brethren sometimes twitted him, good-naturedly, over his money-making, slightly insinuating that he was too "rich" for a preacher. But he had a talent to make money, and Providence had spread out before him a new, rich country, and all he had to do was to use his good sense and go out and possess the land. He was not grasping, however, but was liberal with his means for a man of his day and environment. He not only contributed liberally toward building a house of worship for his own neighborhood, but helped the First Baptist Church of Knoxville build their first meeting-house, gave liberally to the Baptist Female Institute at Jonesboro, and to other causes of religion, as he had opportunity. He gave his time to the churches, never receiving anything from them in the way of remuneration for his services. It is said, however, that on one occasion a collection was taken for him without his knowledge; but, with the consent of the brethren, he took the money donated and with it purchased an overcoat for a poor preacher in the neighborhood.

In the '30's and '40's, when churches were dividing over the question of "missions" and the "societies of the day," Elder Cleveland, by keeping a cool head and steadying the boat, taking a conservative position, as he did, kept his church a unit and steered it successfully through the straits of those stormy days, landing it at length in tranquil waters, on the "missionary side" of the question.

Elder Eli Cleveland died of heart failure November 23, 1859, aged 78 years, 1 month and 22 days. His last words were addressed to his true yoke-fellow in the ministry, Elder Robert Snead, who was to succeed him in the pastoral care of the old Sweetwater Church: "I shall not long be here; I have given up; I have no desire to stay here at all; this world is nothing to me. I am perfectly resigned to go at any time it is the will of God to take me. I have great reason to be thankful for His goodness toward me. My trust is altogether in Jesus, because I could not trust in anything on earth or in myself. I want you to pray for me that I may go easy, for God answers the prayers of His people. Take care of my little flock." The last words spoken, in thirty minutes he fell asleep in Jesus without a groan or a struggle.

ANDREW COFFMAN.

"Andrew Coffman, born December 22, 1784; died September 1, 1864" (tombstone record, Bent Creek Cemetery). Elder Coffman was born and lived all of his life in a very old house, still standing, between Whitesburg and Russellville, where one of his sons, James Edward, lived for half a century, and where his grandson, John Coffman, now lives. January 16, 1812, Andrew Coffman was married to a Miss Nancy Legg.

This union gave to the country some of its best citizens. I make special mention of his oldest son, William H. Coffman, for a long while Baptist deacon of the Whitesburg Church, and who was a true friend and a father to the writer during his first experience in teaching school.

In the record of Bent Creek Church for August, fourth Sunday, 1816, is this item: "Received Andrew Coffman by experience." The presumption is, he was baptized by Caleb Witt, who was pastor of the church at the time. July, second Saturday, 1819, he was made one of a committee appointed by his church to settle a difficulty between two prominent brethren. April, second Saturday, 1820, he was licensed, with two other brethren, to exercise his gift of preaching in the bounds of Bent Creek, Lick Creek and County Line churches. Later the bounds of his license were extended so as to take in "Bethel South (the Morristown First) and Robertson's Creek churches." He was ordained deacon the second Saturday in May, 1825, and was ordained to the work of the ministry the second Sunday in September, 1827, by a council composed of Caleb Witt, Daniel Howery, Wm. Senter, Hughes O. Taylor, Jacob Coffman and Pleasant A. Witt.

He and Pleasant A. Witt were three times chosen co-pastors of the Bent Creek Church, the first and second time for a period of twelve months, the last time an indefinite call was made, to continue "till dissatisfaction should arise." He was a constituent member of the Nolachucky Association in its organization at Bent Creek Church (1828), and year after year, as long as he lived, attended that body as a messenger from Bent Creek (now Whitesburg) Church. He served on various committees, as the minutes show, preached two introductory sermons, and represented the body, almost every year, as a messenger to one or more "corresponding" associations.

Andrew Coffman was a solid, old-fashioned preacher, as he was a solid man, having the confidence of everybody who knew him. He was not pastor of many churches but was a main-

RECORDS proving the descent of Mrs. Henry D. Green from ROBERT CLEVELAND through his daughter, ELIZABETH CLEVELAND & her husband JOHN YATES, JUNR. and thusly through their son, PRESLEY YATES.

1. ROBERT CLEVELAND b. 8 June 1744 Virginia (p. 2068 CLEVELAND GENEALOGY)
d. 10 April 1812 Wilkes County, N. C. (p. 2068 Cleveland Gen)
m. No marriage date has been found for their marriage, but the fact is stated in the Cleveland Genealogy)

ALEY (ALICE) MATHIS b. 11 Dec 1750 KY (?) p. 2068 CLEVELAND GENEALOGY) (I question that she was born in Ky as there was no such State in 1750!!)
d. 18 Dec 1791 Wilkes County, N. C. p. 2068 Celveland Gen.)
(these are the dates on her tombstone in old graveyard)

(Relationship between Robert Cleveland and Elizabeth (Cleveland) Yates p. 2069 Cleveland Genealogy)

3. ELIZABETH CLEVELAND b. 15 July 1782 Wilkes County (p. 2069 Cleveland Geneal)
d. 4 Nov 1850 Wilkes County, N.C. (p. 2069 Cleve. Gen)
m. 13 May 1803 (bond) Wilkes County, N. C. (p. 270 Wilkes marriage bond typescript compiled by LDS)

4. JOHN YATES, JUNR. b. ca 1779 Wilkes County, N. C.(Wilkes Federal Census h. h. #1496 age 71)
1875 Wilkes County, N. C. (probate of Will in Wilkes County)

Note: Children of Rev War Ancestor can be copied from Cleveland Genealogy & marr from report already sent.

(Relationship between Elizabeth (Cleveland) Yates and Presley Yates by will of John Yates, Junr. Letter from Jesse mentioning brother Presley in Ga. and from the excerpt from the old Chronicle newspaper stateing Robert Cleveland was a grandfather of JESSE YATES, brother to Presley)_

Robert's Service given in Cleveland Genal.

Proof of Robert Cleveland, Rev War Soldier

The Will and Dns. of Estate may not be Needed for DAR because they do not Mention Elizabeth Yates. But felt you would want them for your family History of the Clevelands.

J. F. Cleveland.

interested in motor car distribution at Shelby, North Carolina, having the agency there for the Chevrolet product, and other financial interests in the trade at Gastonia. In fraternal organizations he is allied with Palmetto Lodge, No. 31, Ancient Free Masons; Carolina Consistory, No. 1, Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite; and Oasis Temple, Ancient Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine. His military affiliation is with the American Legion.

Ernest Burwell married, October 30, 1923, Faith Courtney, of Lenoir, North Carolina, and they are the parents of one child: George Ernest, 3d.

Mrs. Burwell is a graduate of Converse College; has served as president of the Spartanburg Converse Alumni Club; and is active in religious work in the city.

JESSE FRANKLIN CLEVELAND, M. D.— Engaged in many different branches of business and professional affairs in the course of a busy career, Jesse Franklin Cleveland, M. D., was a strongly contributive influence in the growth and development of Spartanburg and the surrounding district of South Carolina. Believing in his city, he was not satisfied to carry on his medical work alone, for which he had been excellently trained and educated, but branched out into other fields of commercial, industrial, financial and civic life, accomplishing works of value in each of these realms and so advancing the interests of his fellowmen. He carried on faithfully the splendid traditions of the ancient house of Cleveland, whence have sprung so many of our worthy and gifted American citizens.

Dr. Cleveland was born on February 7, 1847, in Spartanburg, son of Dr. Robert Easley and Elizabeth (Bomar) Cleveland. The Clevelands are an old family of North Riding, Yorkshire, England, taking their name from a district called Cleveland. There were two Alexander Clevelands, and the junior of that name was the father of John Cleveland, of Prince William County, Virginia, who was the father of seven sons, among them Benjamin, John and Robert. Benjamin Cleveland later became a colonel and was one of the heroes of King's Mountain. The second son, John, was a Baptist minister of many useful accomplishments as a spiritual leader. The third, Robert, was a captain in his brother's regiment at King's Mountain; and among his sons were Jeremiah and Jesse. Of these, Jeremiah Cleveland lived at Greenville, South Carolina, where he left descendants. His brother, Jesse Cleveland, removed from Wilkes County, North Carolina, in 1810, settling in Spartanburg and becoming the leading merchant of the city. He was successful in his many undertakings, and was known as one of his community's very public-spirited citizens. His merchandise came by wagon from Charleston, Baltimore and Augusta; and in his handling of it and in all his dealings with his fellowmen, he was known for his fine spirit of fair dealing and his sound business judgment. He married Mary Blassingame, and his children were: 1. Mrs. Emily (Cleveland) Choice. 2. John B. Cleveland, Sr. 3. William B. Cleveland. 4. Mrs. Elizabeth (Cleveland) Bevings. 5. Dr. Robert Easley Cleveland, of whom further, father of Jesse Franklin Cleveland, M. D. 6. Mrs. Mary H. Cleveland.

Of these, Dr. Robert Easley Cleveland was born at Spartanburg on January 6, 1822. He received a good education, read medicine, and was graduated in 1843 from the Charleston Medical College. He began his practice in Spartanburg County, gaining a large clientele that extended even beyond the borders of his home State and into North Carolina. To his knowledge of medicine, he added a fine common sense, clinging always to old and tried methods of treatment and aiming ever to fulfil the function of assisting nature in her cures. He retired from his medical practice in 1870, afterward carrying on his private business interests and activities. He was keenly concerned with the growth of Spartanburg and Spartanburg County, especially in the introduction of railway systems and modern improvements. He was active in every way in the building and successful development of the Spartanburg and Asheville Railroad and the Air Line Railroad. Although not a graduate of any regular academic institution, he was a well-read man, socially inclined by nature, hospitable in the home and among his many friends, and a fine conversationalist. His many excellent qualities caused him to be much sought after by his fellowmen, who appreciated his worth to their community and State and deeply enjoyed his fine personal characteristics. Dr. Robert Easley Cleveland married Elizabeth Bomar, daughter of John Bomar and member of another old family of Spartanburg County, her forebears having come to this region of South Carolina from the neighboring State of Virginia.

Dr. Jesse Franklin Cleveland, whose name heads this review, son of Dr. Robert Easley and Elizabeth (Bomar) Cleveland and grandson of the cotton goods manufacturer, John Bomar, was one of two brothers who were closely associated throughout life in many interesting and useful enterprises. The other was John Bomar Cleveland, a record of whose activities appears on following pages.

Under private tutors, Jesse F. Cleveland received his early education, though later he attended Wofford College until he reached the age of sixteen years. At that period of his life, he joined the Army of the Confederacy, serving in the War Between the States as a member of Captain Wilkins' Cavalry. After his service in that conflict, he returned to Spartanburg and here became a leader in many enterprises, having been president of the Tucapau Cotton Mills and a director of other mills near his native city. First, however, he attended the Medical College of Charleston, from which his father had been graduated, and then Jefferson Medical College, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

For several years he was actively engaged in the practice of medicine; but he then gave up his professional work in order to attend to his private interests, which were rapidly multiplying. Continuously from 1896 until 1923 he was president of the Tucapau Mills and in the same period he became a director of several other large mills in Spartanburg County and in his city. He also became a director of the First National Bank of Spartanburg, so continuing for many years thereafter. One of his chief interests, too, was the investment business, in which he was associated with his brother, John Bomar Cleveland, referred to above, this firm having traded under the name of J. F. and J. B. Cleveland. His brother, likewise, was variously interested and, though he had studied to be a lawyer, was hardly at all known for his work in that profession, having been engaged chiefly in different branches of finance, commerce and industry. He, too, was active in the textile trade, having been for twenty-one years president and treasurer of the Whitney Manufacturing Company Cotton Mills; and he was for a quarter of a century receiver and president of the Charleston and Western Carolina Railway. Either officially or financially, he was connected with a number of large corporations, and the interests of the two brothers were often said to have been so numerous as to make almost a directory of the companies of upper South Carolina.

They were both active, however, in many aspects of public life, contributing richly to civic projects of worth and utilizing their wealth in the promotion of prosperity and the development of Spartanburg's natural resources.

A Democrat in his political views, Dr. Jesse F. Cleveland was actively concerned with political affairs, though perhaps less so than was his brother, who was a delegate to the party's national conventions of 1884 in Chicago, at which Grover Cleveland was nominated for his first term as President. That President, it might be noted here, was a descendant of another branch of the same family of Cleveland, a branch that, leaving their early New England, went to Ohio, where Moses Cleveland founded the present great city named Cleveland. Dr. Jesse Franklin Cleveland confined most of his party activities to his city and county, however, and was for a time city councilman representing Ward No. 5 of Spartanburg.

He was also a trustee of the South Carolina State Deaf and Blind School at Cedar Springs and for a time served as chairman of the board of trustees. He also was a trustee of Converse College. Largely interested in agriculture, he owned several extensive farms. In his many undertakings, he was eminently successful from the outset, and was a strong believer in Spartanburg and its possibilities of development. This city had been the home of his ancestors for generations, and he was naturally interested very deeply in its affairs. He was a member of the Church of the Advent, of the Protestant Episcopal faith. In fact, there was almost no phase of civic, social, religious or business life that did not concern him, and his participation in these different branches of activity was vastly helpful to his fellowmen.

Dr. Jesse Franklin Cleveland married, June 19, 1873, at Glenn Springs, Caroline Virginia Zimmerman, daughter of John Conrad and Selina Pierce (Wanamaker) Zimmerman. By this marriage there were children: 1. Elizabeth Emily. 2. John Zimmerman. 3. Robert Benjamin. 4. Lawrence Melvin, who died in infancy. 5. Arthur Franklin (q. v.). 6. Conrad Pierce (q. v.).

The death, on May 1, 1926, of Dr. Jesse F. Cleveland was a cause of deep and widespread sorrow; for few men had been more widely useful as citizens than had he and few had sought so consistently to help others and to do what was possible for the furtherance of the public weal. As a friend, he was loyal and true; as a man, he was possessed of a splendid vision. His memory has been a source of inspiration to all who knew him and came under his beneficial influence; and his record in the annals of South Carolina history is a record of service, strength and inspiration.

Margaret C. Guittard

LANDRUM — Margaret "Peggy" Cleveland Guittard, 73, of Four Columns Farm in Landrum, died Nov. 20, 1992, at her farm.

A native of Spartanburg, she was the widow of Horace Guittard who was the President of Guittard Chocolate Company in Burlingame, Calif. and she was the daughter of the late Arthur F. and Chevillette Cochran Cleveland. She was first married to the late William A. Pomeroy. She was a member of the Episcopal Church of the Advent in Spartanburg. She attended Converse College for two years before graduating from Wellesley College. While living on the West Coast, she was active in civic and social activities in San Francisco as well as devoting energies to her interest in sailing. In San Francisco, she served on the boards of the San Francisco Opera Guild, St. Luke's Hospital, the M.H. DeYoung Museum and was a founding director of the Exploratorium. After 50 years on the West Coast, she returned to the South and became actively involved with Converse College and the development of its foreign studies programs. Among her many contributions to Converse College were a painting by a 19th Century French Realist, Gustave Courbet, titled "Herbst Im Jura" done in 1866, which is on display in the Stack House Parlor in Wilson Hall. Mrs. Guittard also provided the money to restore the interior of the Cleveland Law Range on Magnolia Street, which is listed in the National Register of Historic Places.

Survivors include one daughter, Margaret P. Anderson of Fairfield, Conn.; two sons, John H.C. Pomeroy II of Austin, Texas and William A.C. Pomeroy of Columbus, N.C.; two stepsons, Lawrence Guittard of Los Angeles, Calif. and Gary Guittard of San Francisco, Calif.; one brother, Jesse Franklin Cleveland of Spartanburg; and five grandchildren.

The Requiem Eucharist will be celebrated at 2 p.m. Monday at the Episcopal Church of the Advent by the Rev. Dr. Clay Turner and the Rev. Lyndon Turner. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

Following the service, the family will receive friends at Four Columns Farm in Landrum.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to a charity of one's choice.

The J. F. Floyd Mortuary, North Church Street Chapel is in charge of arrangements.

CITY REVIEW

South Carolina

Spartanburg office and retail markets continue to expand; Greenville market steady, Columbia in midst of retail boom

By Beverly S. Shelley South Carolina Correspondent

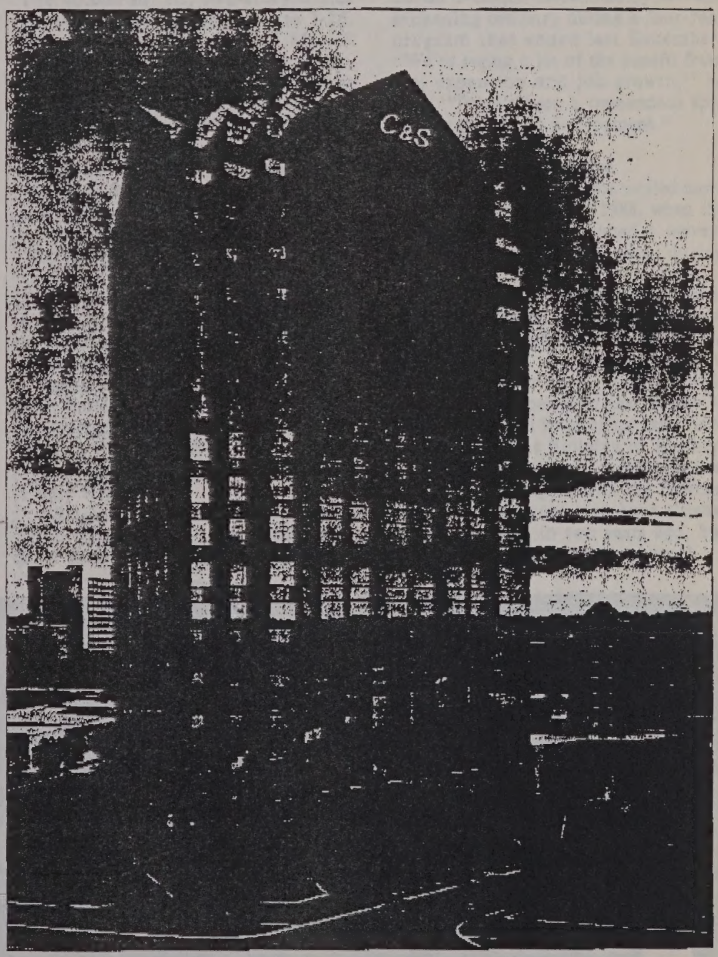
Two of South Carolina's metropolitan areas are among the top 20 fastest growing areas in the United States, Inc. magazine reported in March. Charleston ranked the 19th fastest growing area, and Columbia, the state's capital, ranked 20th. The Greenville/Spartanburg area is the 84th fastest growing area, according to the survey, which ranked 191 metropolitan areas.

The southeastern state continues to see strong commercial growth, although the dynamics of the major markets vary. In Greenville, for example, office development is steady, mostly in office parks, with one new downtown building under construction. The biggest retail activity is a power center by New Market Development, Atlanta, although one of the major malls is slated for expansion and renovation. A steady stream of specialty space continues to be brought on line. Apartments also are being developed at a brisk pace.

Nearby Spartanburg is seeing growth in the office and retail markets. In retail, New Market Development Co., in a venture with Cleveland-White & Associates and Pomeroy Organization, in October completed the 200,000 sq. ft. Market Square Shopping Center.

Columbia is in the midst of a retail boom with a new regional mall under construction and two existing malls undergoing extensive expansion. Office development has tapered as three new downtown high rises compete to fill inventory. The multifamily market tightened in late 1988 and 1989, and development in that arena has picked up.

Charleston, too, is seeing continued development of office and retail space as the Mark Clark Expressway opens new property for development. Many retail shopping centers and other commercial buildings damaged by Hurricane Hugo in September are undergoing repair.



Edens & Avant's C&S Plaza, a 17-story office building, is located at Main and Richland streets, Columbia, S.C. The 310,000 sq. ft. facility, anchored by Citizens and Southern Corp., is more than 75% leased.

Growth continues in Spartanburg

Spartanburg's downtown is taking on a new look as several new office buildings emerge.

Spartan Food System Inc. is nearing completion of a $25 million, 180,000 sq. ft. headquarters on Main Street, and Southwind Ltd. of Columbia has developed the 109,000 sq. ft. Nations Plaza on North Pine Street, where South Carolina National anchors one of two buildings, and the Spartanburg Area Chamber of Commerce occupies the other. When completed in early 1990, the 17-story Spartan Food Systems Plaza will attract an estimated 400 people to downtown daily.

Pulliam Investments also has developed two 4,000 sq. ft. brick colonial office buildings adjacent to the county administrative building in 400 Magnolia, an office development that eventually will contain 32,000 sq. ft. of Class-A space.

Arthur-Cleveland & Associates has plans for a $4.5 million development downtown adjacent to the Spartan building that will include 30,000 sq. ft. of retail development and an equal amount of office space. To be called Boardwalk Center, construction is expected to begin by year's end.

"It's as good as it's been in a long time," John L. Easterling, vice president of Pulliam, says of Spartanburg's office market. "We will continue to see a demand for Class-A office space, which is indicative of the type development Spartanburg has been trying to attract."

A survey in early 1989 showed Spartanburg had 838,362 sq. ft. of office space and a vacancy rate of 40%. Rents range from $5 to $14 per sq. ft., according to the survey provided by the Spartanburg Area Chamber of Commerce.

In the Spartanburg/Greenville area, at the intersection of S.C. Highway 290 and Interstate 85, Hart Corp., Southampton, Pa., is developing Spartangreen corporate park. Currently, RCA Music/Bertelsmann Inc. and Hayssen Manufacturing Co. occupy space in the park. Two spec buildings are available, as well as an additional 70 acres of undeveloped land.

Pointe West, a Merrill Lynch development, was completed in spring 1989. The 40,000 sq. ft., two-story office building is located adjacent to I-26. Donna Turner-Williams of Merrill Lynch says that the building is attractive to firms because its location allows them easy access to several markets.

In shopping center development, New Market Development Co. of Atlanta in a venture with Arthur Cleveland of Cleveland-White & Associates and William Pomeroy of the Pomeroy Organization, in October completed the 200,000 sq. ft. Market Square Shopping Center at Camelot Drive and Highway 29, a facility anchored by TJ Maxx, Michael's Crafts, Old Country Buffet, Home Depot and 15 other shops and restaurants.

Arthur Cleveland, in a joint venture with Easlan Capital of Greenville, also is involved in the development of Camelot, an 87,000 sq. ft. center on Reidville Road, which will be anchored by Piggly Wiggly.

"Systemwide, an awful lot is going on in the central city, the urban fringe and in the county," says Jerri Greene, executive director of the Spartanburg Development Council.

"It just continues to grow," says Cleveland. "With the I-85 corridor, we're in a good location between Charlotte and Atlanta. As they continue to grow, Spartanburg will continue to grow."

Cleveland's other developments around Spartanburg include a $7 million Gary Player-designed, for-fee golf course and residential development, and Clevedale, a 37-acre industrial park on U.S. 29, near I-85.

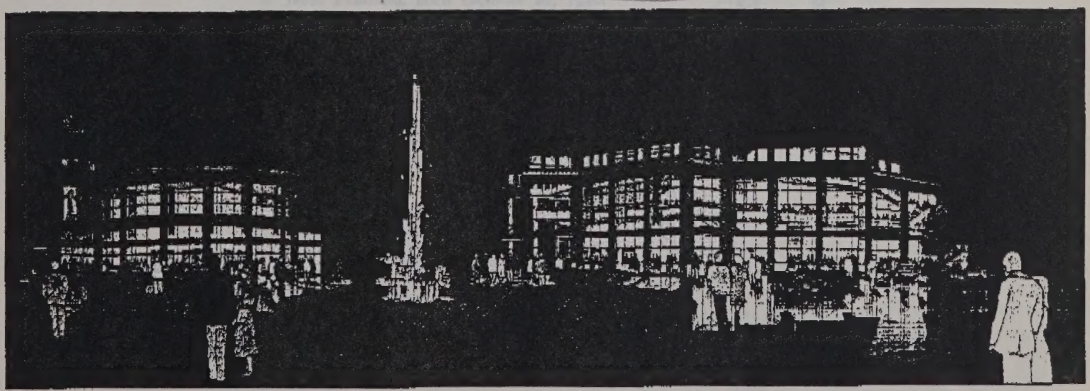
Spartanburg chamber president Ben Haskew says the area has had nearly $1 billion in capital investment by new and expanding industry during a four-year program that ended last December. "We're seeing a lot of the benefit from that expansion and job growth," he says. "There's been a tremendous spin off in commercial development."

Greenville market positive

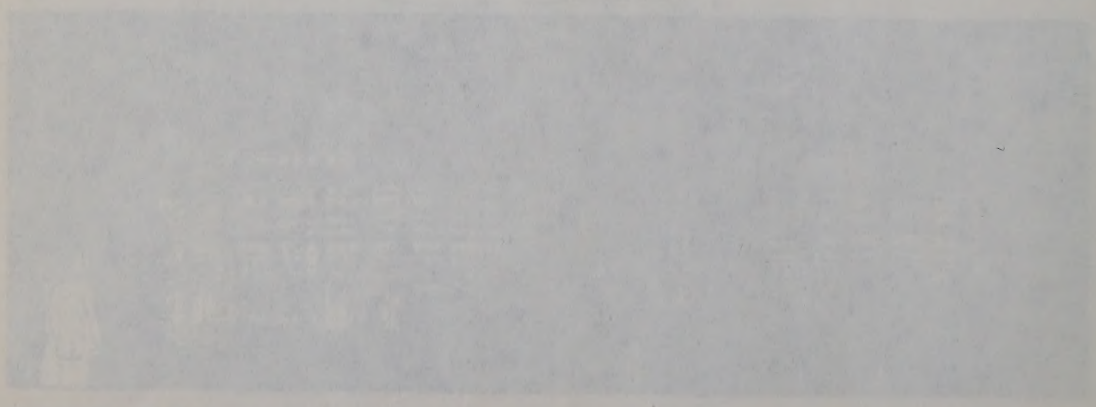
Greenville's office space totaled more than 5 million sq. ft. in 1988, when the Furman Co. last conducted a survey, and space has increased some during 1989.

The occupancy rate for Greenville is estimated at 80%, and rent for Class-A office space ranges from $15.50 to $16.50 per sq. ft. downtown, and $13.75 to $16 per sq. ft. in the suburbs.

"What's happened in the Greenville market is several large office users have moved from one building to another, freeing up some space," says Lisa Stevens, a leasing agent with the Furman Co. "Development may have slowed down compared to two years ago, but things still are really positive here."



The $30 million Performing Arts Center under construction on South Main Street is expected to enhance Greenville, S.C.'s cultural community and perk up downtown. Fluor Daniel is the general contractor for the center.



ARTHUR F. CLEVELAND—In the general investment business for many years, Arthur F. Cleveland has followed in the footsteps of his father, who was similarly engaged at Spartanburg. He is one of the strong financial men of the city, connected with a bank there, and is also an officer of educational institutions.

Mr. Cleveland's grandfather, Dr. Robert Easley Cleveland, was a physician, who practiced in his native city of Spartanburg. Dr. Cleveland's son, Dr. Jesse Franklin Cleveland (q. v.), was born in Spartanburg and graduated from the South Carolina Medical College and Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia. He served in the War Between the States as a member of Captain Wilkins' Cavalry. After the war he was active in various affairs in and near Spartanburg, while practicing the medical profession for many years. He was president of the Tucapau Cotton Mills and a director of a number of mills near his native city, serving also as a director of the First National Bank of Spartanburg. With his brother, J. B. Cleveland, he was connected with the general investment business through the firm of J. F. and J. B. Cleveland. He married Caroline Virginia Zimmerman, who was born in Glenn Springs, and died in 1899, the death of her husband occurring some twenty-seven years later, on May 1, 1926. They were the parents of six children, of whom the four survivors are: 1. John Zimmerman. 2. Robert Benjamin. 3. Arthur F., of this review, see further. 4. Conrad Pierce, whose biography is also to be found following this. A daughter of the family, Miss Elizabeth Emily Cleveland, died in June, 1923.

Born in Spartanburg, November 4, 1884, Arthur F. Cleveland took his preliminary and preparatory courses in the local public schools and was graduated Bachelor of Science from the Clemson Agricultural College in the class of 1906. His first formal employment was with the Lockhart Cotton Mills in Union County, this association continuing for five years. He then joined his father's and uncle's firm, J. F. and J. B. Cleveland, and since has made the general investment business his main endeavor. He is a director of the First National Bank, upon whose board his father sat in a similar capacity. Mr. Cleveland is a trustee of Converse College and of the State School for the Deaf and Blind, Cedar Springs. He and his family are communicants of the Episcopal Church, and his political affiliation is with the Democratic party.

Mr. Cleveland married Chevillette Cochran, of Charleston, a daughter of David Alexander and Caroline (Mahony) Cochran, and they are the parents of two children: 1. Margaret Chevillette, born March 19, 1919. 2. Jesse Franklin, born October 21, 1920.

CLEVELAND — Jesse Franklin, of 1130 Partridge Road, died at Mary Black Memorial Hospital March 26, 1993, after an extended illness. A native of Spartanburg, he was the husband of Betty Neiley Cleveland of Bronxville, N.Y. and Winchester, Massachusetts and son of the late Arthur Franklin Cleveland of Spartanburg and Chevillette Cochran Cleveland of Charleston. He was a member of the Church of the Advent where he had served as Vestryman. He attended Spartanburg City Schools and graduated from Spartanburg High School in 1938. He graduated in 1942 from Harvard University where he was a member of the Lampoon and Hasty Pudding Society. He served in World War II as a Naval aviator and was a member of the Warbirds. He founded the Cleveland Company in 1946 and entered the textile manufacturing business in 1947 at Clifton Manufacturing. He served in various executive capacities including being on the Board of Directors. He was vice president of the Clifton division of Dan River Mills from 1964 to 1965. In 1965 he became a director of the Colonial Trust Company and in 1970 became president. In 1966, he graduated from the University of South Carolina Management Center. In 1970, he also became an associate of The Still Agency Inc. Realtors. In 1980, he formed Cleveland and Associates Realtors which merged in 1982 and became Cleveland, White and Associates Realtors. He was president until 1986 when he retired and was presently President Emeritus. He was a former trustee of Converse College; member of the Board of the Community Chest; member of the budget committee of the United Way; member of the Carolinas United; former member and president of the Travelers Aid Society; member of the Board and Treasurer of the Foundation for the Multihandicapped, Blind and Deaf of South Carolina; member of the Board of Directors of the Piedmont Club; member of the Downtown Rotary Club where he was recognized as a Paul Harris Fellow; member of Spartanburg Country Club; director of Powdercraft Inc. In 1990, he was recognized as the Philanthropist of the Year by the National Society of Fundraising Executives (Piedmont Chapter). Also surviving are one daughter, Catherine Cleveland Grooms of Spartanburg; one son, Arthur Franklin Cleveland II of Spartanburg; two granddaughters, Jennifer Catherine Melnyk and Melonye Neiley Cleveland, both of Spartanburg and three grandsons, David William Melnyk, Christopher Arthur Cleveland and Cameron Maxwell Cleveland, all of Spartanburg. The family will be receiving visitors at 1130 Partridge Road. Services will be held at the Church of the Advent Monday, March 29, 1993, at 11 a.m. Burial will be in Greenlawn Memorial Gardens following the service. Serving as pallbearers will be W. Leonard Still, Tom J. Glenn, Robin M. Hood, William A.C. Pomeroy, Dexter A. Cleveland, Milon S. Chrisman, Charles M. Lindsay, Horace L. Bomar, Mitchell R. Price and Richard I. Manning. Honorary escort will be members of the Spartanburg Rotary Club. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Foundation for the Multihandicapped, Blind and Deaf of South Carolina, Cedar Spring Station, Spartanburg, S.C. 29302 or to the Church of the Advent Foundation, 141 Advent Street, Spartanburg, S.C. 29302.

Additional Information:

CONRAD PIERCE CLEVELAND—A member of an old family long resident in this State and prominent, especially in Spartanburg County and the vicinity, Conrad Pierce Cleveland carries on a large personal business, the major part of which is in the line of investment securities, a business for which the family in later generations has become well known. He also conducts farming enterprises on an extensive scale in various parts of the county, principally through his tenants on those properties.

Dr. Robert Easley Cleveland, grandfather of Conrad P. Cleveland, was a well-known physician who practiced in Spartanburg, his native city, for many years. Dr. Robert E. Cleveland had a son, Dr. Jesse Franklin Cleveland (q. v.), who was born in Spartanburg and graduated from the South Carolina Medical College and Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia. As a member of Captain Wilkins' Cavalry he served in the War Between the States and after that struggle he was active in various endeavors in and near Spartanburg, while practicing his profession for many years. He was president of the Tucapau Cotton Mills and a director of a number of other mills near his native city. He served as a director of the First National Bank of Spartanburg, and with his brother, J. B. Cleveland (q. v.), was identified with the general investment business through the firm of J. F. and J. B. Cleveland. His wife, Caroline Virginia (Zimmerman) Cleveland, who was born in Glenn Springs, died in 1880, and he died May 1, 1926. They had six children, of whom there are four surviving 1. John Zimmerman. 2. Robert Benjamin. 3. Artlee F. (q. v.). 4. Conrad Pierce, of this review, see further. A daughter, Miss Elizabeth Emily Cleveland, died in June, 1923.

Conrad Pierce Cleveland was born in Spartanburg, June 13, 1888, and attended the public schools of his native city while preparing for higher courses. After the Wofford Fitting School he attended Clemson Agricultural College and Wofford College. Mr. Cleveland's religious preference is Episcopal and his political affiliation with the Democratic party.

Mr. Cleveland married, November 19, 1913, Alice Louise Williams, of Jacksonville, Florida, a daughter of Benjamin S. and Lula (Black) Williams. Their children are: 1. Conrad, Jr., born September 6, 1914. 2. Louise Elizabeth, born January 10, 1918. 3. Lula Nancy, born May 2, 1921.

Gen. Joseph Martin

William Martin was the one who wrote about Col. Ben illegitimate daughter but never mentions his sister marrying a Cleveland? Strange!!

Jacob Burriss

Patsy Burriss
was wm's 2nd wife
his 1st wife's niece

If William was the son of Cap Robert why did he move his family to SC - no records of him going to Wilkesboro, NC. He traded land with Abner Cleveland (son of Lt. Larkin Cleveland who was a brother of Ben and Cap Rob). Larkin didn't marry until 1773. Could William be an "illegitimate" son of Larkin before he married ?? Sounds more plausible to me.?

WILLIAM LUCAS' VIRGINIA WILL CHALLENGED IN TENNESSEE - Contributed by Harry M. Cleveland, 2064 Montreat Drive, Memphis, TN 38134

BILL OF COMPLAINT 20 OCT 1827, CHANCERY COURT MINUTES, CARTHAGE, SMITH CO TN
The bill of complaint of Jacob BURRUS and Susannah, his wife; Daniel HAMMOCK and Polly, his wife; Brice MARTIN; William Martin; Joseph CLEVELAND, administrator of Martha Cleveland, deceased of Smith County; Archelous HUGHES and Nancy, his wife of Henry Co TN and Joseph G. WALLER, administrator of Elizabeth Waller of Virginia.

Humbly praying beg leave to show to your honor that on the 20th of May 1813, William LUCAS of Orange County Virginia made his last will and testament and sometime shortly thereafter, perhaps in that same year, he departed this life and the said will was duly proven and recorded with a codicil thereto dated the 9th of August of the same year and letters testamentary granted to Robert CAVE and John Lucas, the executors named therein.

The testator died seized and possessed of a very considerable estate both real and personal and left a large family of children and grandchildren. It will be seen by reference to the will...that it was the habit of the testator when his children married or left him to lend them a portion or portions of his property holding the right in himself and which he afterwards disposed of at his own will or pleasure. His daughter Sarah Lucas intermarried with Joseph Martin and complaintants Susannah, Polly, Brice, William, Martha, Nancy and Elizabeth are the issue of that marriage and were all living at the testators death except Elizabeth. In the will William Lucas states that he lends Rachel Martin 3 negroes during her life and after her decease negroes go to Sarah's children and also lends to Rachel and her husband Bric one half of a 400 acre tract of land during their lives. Rachel had intermarried at an advanced age being upwards of 40 years old against the will and consent of her father. They went to live at a considerable distance from the old man, say about 200 miles, his opposition was not such as to prevent her visiting him, which she and her husband occasionally did, but he did not do anything for them until about 7 years after their marriage. She is now a very old woman perhaps between 75 and 80 years old, living in Henry Co VA, never having had any issue. Joseph and Sarah Martin lived in the same county. During this time the slaves have had several children, of which some are in Rachel's possession and one in possession of Nancy Martin, now living in Overton Co TN. Brice, a widower when he married the said Rachel, had 2 children, Joseph and William, by a former marriage. William married Nancy and after moving to TN died. Slaves are now in possession of Thomas SMITH who married a daughter of William Martin. (William Martin, who died intestate 1817/18, left the following heirs: wife Nancy, Brice, John, Thomas, Joseph and Unity who married Thomas Smith.)

Your complaintants are advised and believe that they are in great danger of losing the bounty and bequest of their grandfather under this management of the life estate and setting up of interests wholly inconsistent with and in opposition to their remainder. To the end therefore that the said Nancy Martin of Overton Co TN and Thomas Smith of ___ Co TN together with Rachel Martin of Henry Co VA be made defendants to this bill and severally answer the same, particularly let them set forth and discover the names, ages, descriptions and value of the said negroes and to enjoin them from selling them...

Another bill of complaint in the nature of a bill of review was filed 10 Nov 1829. Depositions were taken from Brice Edwards, Susan C. Waller and James Edwards in July term 1829. Rachel Martin died in Virginia 1828 since the filing of the original bill of complaint.

William Johnson Cleveland - died Aug 1834; m/1 Martha Martin, daughter of Joseph Martin and Sarah Lucas; m/2 Martha (Patsey) BURRUS - born NC 1796, daughter of Jacob Burrus and Susannah Martin.

His children with Martha Martin were:

1. Caroline - born 1792 Pendleton Co SC; married Smith Co TN Thomas STAFFORD; died after 1849
2. Mary - born 1794 Franklin Co GA; married 21 Apr 1815 John BRANSFORD; died 3 May 1842 Davidson Co TN
3. Milton - born 1796 Franklin Co GA; m/1 Mary FERGUSON; m/2 Susan BEVAN; died 1 Feb 1847
4. Joseph A. - born 1798 Franklin Co GA; married Elizabeth WISEMAN; died Jun 1840 Smith Co TN
5. Susan - born 1800 Franklin Co GA; married Smith Co TN Benjamin PIPER
6. Robert Emmett - born 1803 Henry Co VA; married cJul 1834 Smith Co TN Mary DILLEHAY
7. Harriet - born 1805 Henry Co VA; married Joseph B. GREGORY; died after Nov 1873 Lawrence Co IN
8. William J. - born 1811 Smith Co TN; married 1834 Euphemia D. YOUNG; died 29 Nov 1865 Randolph Co AR
9. Haggard Perry - born 1813 Smith Co TN; married 1 Jan 1840 Davidson Co TN Lucinda ALDERSON; died c1874 Bedford Co TN
10. Alexander - born 1815 Smith Co TN; married 26 Sep 1844 Callaway Co MO Polly Ferguson; died cFeb 1857
11. Martha - born 1817 Smith Co TN; married 28 Mar 1838 Davidson Co TN Henry J. MORGAN

His children with Martha Burrus were:

1. Jacob Martin - born c1821 Smith Co TN; married c1847 Amanda Parker WRIGHT; died c1856 Smith Co TN

Family Gatherings (continued from p. 60)

2. Nancy - born c1822 Smith Co TN; married Alfred RICHARDSON
3. Matilda - born c1826 Smith Co TN; married William TAYLOR
4. Susan - born c1827 Smith Co TN; married Ambros GREGORY
5. Lutitia - married 27 Jan 1850 Smith Co TN William Smith
6. William N. - born 3 Jan 1835 Smith Co TN; m/1 Eada Gregory; m/2 Catherine Clegg LESTER; m/3 Melvina HOOPER; died 9 Jul 1912 Smith Co TN

The following was copied from an undated letter from Francis Marion GREGORY, son of Joseph Braxton and Harriet (Cleveland) Gregory, to his daughter Mrs. Benn CLARK of Cookeville, TN. "My great grandfather on my mother's side was Joe Cleveland of Lynchburg, VA. He married Emily NASH, daughter of General Nash. He was killed in the Revolutionary War. Nashville, TN was named for him. My mother was the daughter of William Cleveland. He was the son of General Joe Cleveland, so you see my mother was a Cleveland."

WILLIAM SMITH'S WILL - Submitted by John A. Haliburton, Box 1013, Guymon, OK 73942

State of Tennessee Smith County May 26, 1848 Recorded 1849 Know all these men by these presents that I, William SMITH, of the county and state aforesaid, do hereinafter make my last will and testament and first I do give to my son Jesse Smith my tract of land on which I live with the exception of eight acres that lies in the hollow joining John HALLIBURTONS. That eight acres I give to my daughter Elizabeth Halliburton. Further I do give one half of my hogs to my son William Smith. I give all my perishable property of whatever it may consist to my beloved wife to be hers and at the disposal as long as she lives and at her death for her to give what remains to who she may see cause as witness whereof I have here unto set my hand and seal this day on the date above written. William (X) Smith Attest: Daniel Smith, Sr. and Joseph P. Smith to the common rates within the county." Thus Michael Murphy, the Irishmann who had come to claim land granted to him, was the proprietor of an ordinary (inn, tavern or trading post) which was located about one mile east of the present Pleasant Shade post office.

Another Smith Co TN ancestor of Mr. Haliburton's is Benjamin BRADLEY, who was a farmer, a devout Baptist and a fine worthy man. He married Frances LANCASTER; they lived and died at Brush Creek in Smith Co TN.

After Christian Boston's Stock Mark — "A swallow fork in the left ear and a slit in the right" . . . had been ordered recorded, court was adjourned to alternate for the next four months between Fort Blount and Dixon Springs. It is not known whether they ever again met at the home of Michael Murphy or not.

During the session of court preceeding, Michael Murphy had been the subscribing witness to a deed for 224 acres from Redmond D. Barry to Sampson Williams. Then along about February or March of 1801, Mr. Murphy, according to tradition, took the life of one of his slaves in a disagreement, and the court "ordered that Vincent Ridley and William L. Alexander be allowed the sum of $21.21 for their trouble and expenses in taking Michael Murphy from his own house to Nashville as a prisoner". However, the offense must have not been considered too serious, for by the next court (meeting at William Walton's in Carthage) Michael Murphy, Tilman Dixon, William Walton and John Gordon were each granted license to run a tavern.

After 1810, the Winklers, Woods, and Smith families arrived in the Pleasant Shade area. Other early settlers included the Jenkins, Clevelands, Williams, Wilmores, Shepherds, Brooks, Cornwells, Wakefields, Parkhursts, Oldhams, Hietts, Stones, Tonys, Taylors, Kemps, Goads, Porters Dillehays, McDonalds, McDuffees, Whitleys, Kittrells, Masseys, Evitts, and the Russells.

On November 11, 1817, the County court ordered "that Archibald Sloan be permitted to build a mill on Peyton's Creek at the fork of said creek on the lands owned by himself." This was likely one of the first industrys to be located at that place.

Since the beginning of our settlement, and up until the present time, our citizens have considered religious matters as one of the greatest assets to any community. On April the 27th, 1833, William Parkhurst and John Hesson witnessed a deed for one acre of land from William Cleveland to "Baptist Church on Peyton Creek, it being part of the land on where I now live, for the purpose of erecting a house for public worship for use of said Baptist Church."

William Cleveland lived on a 289 acre farm situated on both sides of Peyton's Creek, about one mile south of Pleasant Shade. He had first married Martha Martin, a daughter of Gen. Joseph Martin of Martinsville, Virginia. Deacon William Martin of the Dixon's Creek Baptist Church and William Cleveland were from the Shoal Creek Baptist Church in Tugaloo, Georgia (Just across the river from the Pendleton District of South Carolina) and had been baptized by Eld. John Cleveland. William Martin and Martha Martin Cleveland were brother and sister.

Just after the area was deeded to the Baptist Church a log structure was erected thereon, and in November of 1836 the organization of Mt. Tabor Baptist Church took place with James Matherson taking the minutes. The presbytery was composed of the following ministers: John Wiseman of Bledsoe Creek Church, William C. Bransford of East Fork of Goose Creek (Now Hillsdale); Daniel Smith and Edward B. Haynie of Peyton's Creek. The Deacons were: William Martin and John A. Johnson of Dixon's Creek; and Thomas Taylor and Abel Gregory of Peyton's Creek Church. The twenty-four organizing members immediately called as their pastor the man who had been preaching to them as a mission, Eld. Daniel Smith. John Patterson first served the church as Clerk.

By the end of the next year, six additional members had been added by baptism and forty-two by church letter making a total of 85 members. John Hesson, a minister, and Randall Smith (nephew of Eld. Daniel Smith) served as messengers to the Salem Association for 1837 and gave the above report. (For more on Daniel Smith see Family History Section).

Elder Daniel Smith continued to serve as pastor of the church until his death in 1857, at which time his son, Daniel Wisemen Smith, was elected and served until 1859; John Patterson (1859-1861); Civil War during 1861-1865 and services suspended; E. Luther Smith (1865-1888); Mance B. Ramsey (1888-1904).

During the time Eld. Ramsey was pastor it was decided to build a new church building across the road and near the creek. This weatherboarded building was completed in 1894.

Elder George Ramsey served from 1904-1908, and Rufus B. Davis from 1908-1910. In 1908, C.B. (Cap) Massey moved to the Pleasant Shade community and became the pastor from 1910 to 1920. Next was Luther A. Stewart whose first appearance in Smith county was at a brush arbor meeting he held at Mace's Hill in 1915, before the church was established there. He was pastor from 1920-1924, after which came Elder Calvin Gregory

Cal's Column Vol 1

March 6, 1952

* CAL'S COLUMN *

The time is Monday, March 15, 1802, and the place is near Dixon Springs, and the record is that of the court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions for Smith County. The next item is as follows: "Deed, 360 acres Robert Fenner to John Burris, proven by the oath of James Blackburn, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto." We have no information as to Robert Fenner. We have no direct information as to John Burris. However, the name is still borne by a number of Jackson Countians, and we would judge that the land was located in what is now that county. James Blackburn was a witness and we believed that he once lived on the present Blackburn's Fork of Roaring River which empties into the Cumberland just above Gainesboro.

We do have a brief sketch of the Burris family, but do not find John mentioned therein. The sketch follows: Martin Burris, married Jane Azling, and by her had the following children: Brice Burris, never married and died in the Civil War; Joe Burris, married Ann Oldham, the daughter of William Oldham, the son of George Oldham. Later Joe Burris married Maggie Roark; Susan Burris, married Charles E. Goad; Jake Burris, married a White, and also lost his life in the Civil War; George Burris, also lost his life in the battle of Nashville as did his brother, Jake Burris, and like George Burris, he never married; Jim Burris, never married; and Martha, married W. C. (Bill) Earps. Joe Burris and his wife, Ann Oldham, were the parents of two children, Eleanor, married Peter Wilburn, son of Ben Wilburn, son of Obed Wilburn; and Rowena, married Tom Grant. By the second wife, Mrs. Maggie Roark Burris, he had one daughter, Lucy, now the wife of W. A. McClard, of near Westmoreland. Jake Burris had one child, Jake Burris, Jr., who married Sallie Gregory, daughter of Dink and Betty Gregory, uncle and aunt of the writer's father, Thomas M. Gregory. Jake Burris, Jr., had three children, Brice, who is still living; and Mary, married Henry Jenkins, son of Haywood Jenkins; and Lou Vernia, who married the writer's first cousin, Wesley Gregory. We believe that Lou Vernia is still living, somewhere in Indiana. Martha, who married Bill Earps, was the mother of Jane, married an Anderson; and Lucy, married Sam Davis. Martin Burris, whose name is at the top of this list, was perhaps a son of the John Burris referred to in the old Court record, but this is a conjecture only. Martin Burris's mother was a Miss Martin prior to her marriage to the father of Martin who was named for his mother's family. She was a first cousin of Wilson Martin, whose daughter, Nannie, married Howard Young, father of the late Sam M. Young, a leading citizen of Dixon Springs for many years and a man of distinction in Smith County and the State.

But to return once more to the old records, we record the next: "Ordered that the resignation of John L. Martin, Esquire, as Sheriff, be received, he having rendered same in open Court; and that Silas Jernigan Esquire, be appointed as Sheriff pro tem." We are quite sure that this John L. Martin was a member of the same family of Martins referred to in the preceding paragraph.

"Ordered that William Martin be allowed to enter into bond and security for his service as surveyor of the county of Smith, who produced his Commission from the Governor, bearing date of the 27th of November, 1801; and took the following oath: 'I, William Martin, do swear that I will well and truly perform all the duties of County Surveyor in the county of Smith, to the best of my knowledge and belief, and that I will take only lawful fees. So help me God, and His saints.'" Signed, William Martin. Teste, Sampson Williams." Here we have a rather lengthly item and one of more than passing interest. William Martin, as has been related in this Column, was a noted man in the early history of Smith County. He was born in Orange County, Virginia, Nov. 28, 1765. He was the son of General Joseph Martin, one of the first to explore Powell's Valley, in southwest Virginia and East Tennessee. William Martin was brought up to know the hardships and dangers of early life in Virginia; and, at the early age of 15 years, was in his first campaign against the Indians. He fought under General William Campbell at the Battle of King's Mountain. He came to Middle Tennessee in 1787, and remained two years. He aided in the cutting of the Walton Road. Martin's Creek in the adjoining county of Jackson, took its name for William Martin. If readers want additional information about Colonel Martin, we might add some things to the brief account above given.

In taking the above oath, we note an unusual ending to that vow—"So help me God, and His Saints." This appears to have been flavored slightly with the Catholic idea of praying to the saints or invoking their help.

"Court adjourns until tomorrow nine o'clock." Thus closed the work of that March day 150 years ago.

"Tuesday, March 16, 1802. Court met according to adjourment. Members present (viz) Elmore Douglas, William Kavanaugh and John Lancaster, Esquires." We are still "in the dark" as to how many "Esquires" were required to form a quorum. Here we have only three present for the second day of Court.

"Deed, 500 acres, Hugh Stephenson to Thomas Harrison, proven by the oath of John Wilson, one of the subscribing witnesses." We have no record of either of these men. We do recall that on the trip from Virginia, one of the men on the flotilla of boats making the trip down the Tennessee River to the Ohio and thence up the Cumberland to the present Nashville, was named Harrison, that he was lost in East Tennessee for perhaps a day or two, and how that a small cannon was fired to let him know the direction in which to find his fellow voyagers in that wilderness of about 175 years ago, how that the flotilla guess. We have no knowledge of McClain. "Deed, 800 acres, William Sanders to Alexander Lowery, acknowledged." We suppose the seller was the same man who had earlier sold land to James McClain. We have no knowledge of Alexander Lowery.

"John Caplinger came into court and resigned his appointment as Road Overseer; and John Tuggle is appointed in his stead with the same hands to work under him, etc. We are sure that this road was in what is now the southwest corner of Smith County, in the vicinity of Grant. Quite a number of Tuggles once lived in that section. John Caplinger would perhaps today be called John Caplenor, with the accent on the letter e. We wonder if the original name was Caplenor or Caplinger. If any reader can tell us, please feel free to communicate with us. John Caplinger is listed in the census of Smith County for 1820, but we do not suppose it could have been the man who resigned as Road Overseer. The census record shows the following: One male under 10, and one between 26 and 45; and one female in the same age group as Caplinger, his wife no doubt. He owned two slaves.

Enoch Caplinger is listed as follows: Two males under 10, and one between 26 and 45; and one female under 10, one from 10 to 16; and one from 26 to 45. These are the only Caplinger families listed in Smith County in 1820.

"Ordered that John Caplinger be allowed to build a mill on Round Lick Creek on the land belonging to him and Harris Bradford, and that he be allowed the customary rates for grinding." We are sure that this is the same man who had just resigned as Road Overseer. Where this mill was to be located we do not know; although there was once a mill to the west of the present Grant, on Round Lick. If any reader recalls the location of Caplinger's Mill on Round Lick, please feel free to write us to that effect.

Some years ago we noted that the Tennessee Highway Department had put up road signs in many places on State Highways. But their "speller" did not know much about his "onions." Instead of spelling "Lick" as it should have been, he had spelled it "Lake." We were much amused at "Round Lake" Creek. The word, "Lick,", as applied to our streams, meant that somewhere on its waters there was a spring with salty waters, from which the place derived its name, "Lick." This was because deer and other animals went there for salt, licking the brackish waters in an effort to satisfy their desire for salt. The place where salt-licking animals gathered was also a good place for the flesh-eating type of animals to gather, to seek a prey. This naturally attracted hunters who soon discovered the salt springs and "licks" throughout this part of the country. Sometimes so many animals frequented the "licks" that game trails were made.

"Lick Branch," a few miles north of Lafayette, is a small stream which flows into Puncheon Camp Creek. It is said to be so named from the fact that in times of heavy rains, waters from a cave on that stream came forth with quite a lot of saltpeter, which aniamsl "licked" in the long gone days. The salpeter was also used long ago in making gunpowder.

The upper part of Peyton's Creek, not far from the Mima Gregory Hill, also had a small lick. Salt Lick Creek of Barren River took its name from the "lick" at the present Red Boiling Springs. In fact the healing waters of this famous resort were found very early by hunters who sought game at the "lick."

We do not know where the "lick" was on Salt Lick, of Cumberland, althoug perhaps some of our readers recall the location of the little salt spring that gave the creek its name. The same holds true of Lick Creek of Dixon's Creek.

Castalian Springs was for long years known as the "lick." This was the name given because of the waters that flowed from a little spring very near where Thomas Sharpe Spencer made his home for a winter in a big hollow sycamore tree. This spring still flows on as in pioneer days, although the wild animals that once gathered there for salt are no more.

But coming back briefly to the old records, we find: "Court adjourns until tomorrow at ten o'clock." Thus closes the first day of the Court's meeting in December, 1802.

Recently we asked if any reader could give us the location of the pioneer home of James Hibbetts, suggesting that it was possibly on upper Pumpkin Branch. We are informed by Lon A. Burrow that he resides on the old Hibbetts farm, near the lower end of the Carter Branch, not far to the southwest of the present Hillsdale. He reports that Hibbetts and his wife and perhaps other members of the family are buried there in the old family graveyard. We would suppose that the gap at the head of Pumpkin Branch, leading to Dog Branch of Dixon's Creek, took its name from Hibbetts as this leads directly from Dixon's Creek to the Hibbetts home, and was at the top of the last hill the traveler had to climb from Dixon's Creek to Hibbetts' home. We thank Mr. Burrow for his information and we are always glad to make any needed correction.

We are informed by Elder R. D. Brooks that the Greene Wright mentioned in this Column recently, married Polly Burton, a Virginian of considerable wealth. She had a sister that married George Wright, a brother of Greene. Still another sister, Susie Burton, married John Merryman, of pioneer days. We recall that the wife of Ben Wilburn, the father of Billie, Jae, Ben, Jr., Peter and Albert Wilburn, was, prior to her marriage, Miss Martha Burton. We wonder if she was another sister of the three mention above. If any reader can give us this information, it will be appreciated. If not a sister, was she related to the three Virginia Burton women?

Greene Wright and his wife, Polly Burton Wright, were the parents of: Robert Wright, married Mary Mayo; Mary Wright, married Charles Brooks, Eli Gammon and Jeremiah Vandenburg, Carmichael Taylor, the son of David Taylor, for whom the Taylor Bronch, a few miles south of Lafayette, is said to have been named; Amanda Wright, married Jacob Cleveland; Sarah Wright, married Hamilton Payne, and one other daughter, whose name is not recalled. Greene Wright lived at the present Booker Wilburn home on upper Dixon's Creek.

We resume our story of two weeks ago based on a trip we recently made from Lafayette to a funeral service at Mt. Tabor, near Pleasant Shade, and the trip to the family burial ground where the dead man was laid to rest. The man who had passed away was our friend for many years, Walter Chambers, commonly called "Big Walter" Chambers. We closed with some account of the first time we ever heard the name Ebenezer, which is the name of a Baptist Church located on the extreme upper waters of Little Peyton's Creek, which empties into the main stream at the Kittrell or old Ballou farm, about a mile and a quarter above Pleasant Shade.

Passing on down the valley, we came to the cemetery in which are buried various members of the Cleveland family which is now nearly extinct in Macon County. In fact we do not recall at this time a single man or woman bearing the name of Cleveland. On thi point we would like to give some account of the Clevelands in Smith County, of whom we have any information, was Wiliah, who, in 1820, had the following family: Four males under 10, and one male over 45, no doubt William himself. There was only one female in the family, and she was between 16 and 25, supposedly his wife, although she was much younger than her husband.

Joseph Cleveland lived in Smith County in the year 1820, and might have been a son of William by a former marriage. Anyway, he was then between 18 and 26, and his wife was in the age group between 16 and 25. There were no children in the family.

William Cleveland is listed in the census of 1830 as follows: Head of family, William Cleveland; male under 10, one; one from 10 to 15 years old, one from 20 to 30 years of age; and one male from 50 to 60. Females, three under five, one from 5 to 10, one from 20 to 30, and one, supposedly the wife, from 30 to 40 years of age. His nearest neighbors were William Evetts and Joseph Evetts and other neighbors included Elias Johns and Sam W. McMurry, who, so far as we can learn, lived in the long ago on Dixon's Creek. Readers may not know that prior to 1850, the census taker did not give the name of any member of the family except the head of the family. Beginning in 1850, the various members of the family were enrolled, together with their ages and places of birth.

Joseph Cleveland, presumably the same one listed in 1820, as above set out, had in the year 1830 the following family: Joseph Cleveland, head of the family, males, one from 5 to 10, one from 30 to 40, and this was no doubt Joseph himself; and one female under five, one from 5 to 10, and one from 20 to 30, Mrs. Cleveland no doubt. From the names of his neighbors, whose places of residence are fairly well known today, we would judge that Joseph lived in the year 1830 on Dixon's Creek. His neighbors were Thomas Porter, George Wright, William Bransford, Isaac Wiseman, John Shrum, Womack Parker, Nicholas Shrum and others.

These two Cleveland families are all that lived in Smith County in the year 1830. In the census of 1850 we find the name is spelled there "Cleaveland," which is incorrect. Listed on Peyton's Creek in that year we find: Martha Cleveland, 54, evidently a widow and born in North Carolina; and two other members of the family, Sarah S. Cleveland, 23, and born in Tennessee; and William N. Cleveland, 15, and born in Tennessee. Her neighbors were: James Eden, Nancy Richardson, John Hiett and Joseph Hiett, the grandfather of Luid Hiett, of our town. Living not very far from Martha Cleveland was J0seph B. Gregory, whose wife, Harriet, was a Miss Cleveland prior to her marriage. She was a relative of the Clevelands of Smith County 100 years ago. She was also the great-great-grandmother of the late Fred D. Gregory, who died in Lafayette some months ago.

Wm's son Joseph's widow

Another Cleveland family listed as being in Smith County in the year 1850 was that of Elizabeth Cleveland, evidently a widow also. She was 47 years of age in that year; 1850, and had the following members of her family: Francis M., 17; Lucinda I., 14; and Sarah D., 10. Her nearest neighbors included: Matthew Anderson, Moses Abbitts, supposed to have been Evetts; William B. Weatherford, John H. Ligon, all of whom lived, from the best information obtainable now at a period more than 100 years removed, on the waters of Dixon's Creek.

The last-listed Cleveland family in the census of Smith County in the year 1850 was that of Jacob Martin Cleveland, 29 years old and born in Tennessee. Other members of the family were his wife, Amanda, 23 years of age and a native of Tennessee; and their one son, Robert Hatton Cleveland, for many years a merchant at Pleasant Shade and a very fine man. He married Maggie Wilkerson, or Wilkinson as some spelled the name. The writer held the funeral of both Bob Cleveland and his wife in the years gone by. Bob was born in the year 1849.

Since the above Cleveland data was written, we have found among our old papers the following information furnished us by Elder Bud Beal, who tells us that his mother, Mrs. Letitia Gregory Beal, gave him these facts on the history of the family more than 20 years ago. She is now dead. The information given by Mrs. Beal follows.

Billie Cleveland must have first married a Burris or a Martin. No further back is known on his line. Mrs. Letitia Beal's mother was Sarah Susan Cleveland, daughter of Billie Cleveland. By the first marriage, either to Burris or Martin, Billie Cleveland was the father of five children: Perry Cleveland, Sookie (Susan) Cleveland, Jack Cleveland, Emmett Cleveland, Harriet Cleveland. Harriet married Joe B. Gregory.

Billie Cleveland later married Patsy Burris, by whom he had six children: Martin Cleveland, Nancy Cleveland, married Alfred Richardson; Matilda Cleveland, married William Taylor; Sarah Susan, married Ambrose David Gregory, son of Big Tom and Bettie Gregory; and Letitia Cleveland, married Billie Smith. Martin Cleveland married Amanda Parker Wright, by whom he had three children, Robert Hatton (Bob), Campbell and Scott Cleveland. Nancy had no children and neither did Matilda. Sarah Susan and Ambrose Gregory were the parents of: three, died in infancy; and Bellzora, married Bob Brown, and had nine chidren; Letitia, married Dixon Beal and had four children two who died in infancy; and Bud Beal and Georgia Beal, who married Isham Earps and had eight chidlren, and Palmyra Cleveland, married Rufus Beasley. Bud has but one son. Letitia Cleveland Smith was the mother of two children, one of whom died about 1900 and nothing is known of the other. Billie, Jr., who makes out the number of six children by the Burris woman of the second marriage, married Edith, daughter of Dobb Gregory, by whom he had two children, Monk or William and Addie. Addie married a Godfrey. Billie Jr., married Cattie Lester, by whom he had one son, Fred Cleveland, at present owner of a drug business in Carthage. Still later he married Melvina Hooper.

Proceeding southeastward in our journey to the funeral, we came to the Brown place. Here living in the years gone by Lee Brown, who married a Miss Andrews, Emily by name, the daughter of Drury and Jane Cartwright Andrews. Drury Andrews was the son of John Andrews, commonly called Jack Andrews, and his wife, Matilda Willis. John Andrews was the son of Drury Andrews, who is the ancestor of every Andrews of whom we have any knowledge in North Middle Tennessee.

As we drove further southeastward we passed the old home of Billie Gregory, son of Jesse Gregory, son of Curtis Gregory, son of Smith Gregory, son of Squire William H. Gregory, a soldier of the American Revolution, and a brother of the writer's great-great-grandfather, Bry Gregory. Not far from the Billie Gregory home place John B. McDuffee, who is now in his ninties at his home at Hillsdale, this county, was born and grew to manhood. Uncle John is a most remarkably preserved man for his many years, still being able to drive his own car, to mount a horse with the agility of many men 40 years younger than he.

We came later to the Cartwright place near the forks of the upper part of Little Peyton's Creek, but we do not have the name of the first Cartwright who lived there at hand. However, he was a relative of Richardson Cartwright, a pioneer Defeated Creek citizen, perhaps a brother.

Down past the Luster Jones farm, the G.O. Richmon place, the Horace Dickerson farm, we came to the Henry Oldham place. Here lived in the years gone by Elder Henry Calvert Oldham, a Baptist minister, who had the care of quite a number of county congregations and who was quite active in his work as preacher. He was the son of James Oldham, the s of James Oldham and hiw wife, Mary Perki Oldham. James Oldham was the son of Geor Oldham, and his wife, Celia Sutherland Oldham, w came out of Virginia in the autumn of 1805 and settle at the present Herbert Sloan home. George and Cel are the ancestors of every Oldham of whom we hav any information here in North Middle Tennessee exce for Reeder Oldham, Gainesboro Church of Chri minister.

We knew Henry Oldham perhaps as well as any othe minister. We knew his problems, his fears, his har trials and his dread of the work of a preacher a intimately as any other man perhaps. He has bee gone since July 16, 1943.

He was not a perfect man but neither are our readers and the editor certainly is far from perfect. Bu Brother Oldham did a lot of good. In fact he was on of the very best preachers we ever known, to go into the homes of his members and there talk with them ove their problems, their sorrows and their worries. The writer has not had time for many years go do even half as much on this line as he desired to do and felt i . s heart he ought to do. Brother Oldham was, at the time of his death, even younger than the writer is today. By this fact we are reminded that our race will soon be run and that we are destined to "go the way of all the earth" at no distant time in the future.

Henry and the writer held many meetings together and enjoyed a fellowship not often found between prechers. We knew each other's faults and short-comings perhaps as few ministers do. We had many good times together. We recall his extreme fondness for certain foods and our "razzing" him about how much he could eat. He also had some fun at the expense of the writer. While we were engaged in preaching in the mountains of southwest Virginia, near the big Stone Gap about 30 years ago, he had a lot of fun out of Gregory over the fact that we took refuge in a home near a highway during a shower while we were waiting for a bus to carry us to Middlesboro in the extreme southeast corner of Kentucky, not many miles away. We rushed into the strange home, to find the occupant, a Methodist minister, about to engage in the morning prayer. We apologized for intruding and were then welcomed into the midst of the family of the mountain preacher, who already had his Bible in his hand from which to read a lesson. He looked at the two strange ministers and then handed the book to the writer, saying, "You are the older. Take charge of the devotional period." We were some five years younger than Oldham, but we took the Bible, read a lesson and then led in prayer. Oldham got a great "laugh" out of the strange preacher's thinking that Gregory was the older of the two men.

We recall another episode in which Oldham was the "goat" instead of Gregory. We were with Elder C.B. Massey in a little Bible school at Gladdice Baptist

Rev. Calvin Gregory,
Editor and publisher of the Times,
Lafayette, Tenn.

Dear Brother Gregory:

Several numbers of the Times, have come to both interest and instruct me. Let me here wish you a Happy and Prosperous New Year, and the continuance of a most interesting publication.

I am much interested in the material submitted in the December 17th issue, on Cleveland. My wife and three sons hang on the Cleveland Family Tree, through marriage of Elizabeth Cleveland, daughter of the second Alexander Cleveland, to John Coffey, all of Orange County, Virginia.

From data gathered by the Cleveland Family, I have it that the first of this Cleveland Family came to Virgina, probably after 1659, in the person of Alexander Cleveland, Sr., said to be a brother of Moses Cleveland, who went to New England and was the ancestor of President Grover Cleveland. This Alexander Cleveland left a son, Alexander Cleveland, Jr., probably born in England, about 1659, came with his father to Virginia, where he married Milly Presley, daughter of Peter Presley, who was a son of William Presley, the Burgess, etc., and had, John Cleveland, Alexander Cleveland 3d., Jeremiah Cleveland, Micajah Cleveland, Elizabeth Cleveland and William Cleveland.

John Cleveland, son of Alexander Cleveland and Milly Presley, born in Orange Co., Va., about 1697, married Martha Coffey, who was born about 1707, also in Orange Co., Va. Their children: John Cleveland, Jr., Mary Cleveland, Benjamin Cleveland (Col. in the Rev. War in North Carolina), Robert Cleveland (Capt. in his brother Benj. Cleveland's Regiment in N. C., Rev. War), Jeremiah Cleveland, (Rev. Sol.), Larkin Cleveland (Rev.) Sol., N. C.) and two daughters or maybe a son, Tom and a daughter.

Of these sons of John Cleveland and Martha Coffey, all gave a good account of themselves in the Rev. War. Robert Cleveland removed to Blount County, Tenn. after the Rev. War, and left posterity in that County, which scattered through Eastern Tenn. He was born in Prince William Co., Va., in 1744 and died in Blount Co., Tenn., in 1812. He married Ailey Mathis, and left a considerable family, "Elder" Eli Cleveland, was a son of Capt. Robert Cleveland, born October 1, 1731, and died November 23, 1859, married Polly Ragan, etc., is buried in Cleveland Grave Yard in Blount Co., Tenn. Another son was Presley Cleveland, born September 14, 1779, died May 31, 1861, married Elizabeth Johnson.

Robert Cleveland had a younger brother, William Cleveland, who may be your William Cleveland of Smith County, Tenn. We know that the Clevelands were moving into Tenn. about that time. So he could have been, a brother to Capt. Robert Cleveland, who is also buried in the Cleveland Burying Grounds in Blount County, Tenn.

If anything new shows up on the Clevelands, I wish I could have a chance at it. Again wishing you a Happy and Prosperous New Year, I am

Most respectfully,
Walter W. Smith.

After reading the above letter which came more than a month ago, we partially overlooked it and now apologize for our oversight.

We offer the following additional Cleveland information: Col. Benjamin Cleveland was one of Armstrong's captains. William (afterward general) Lenoir was Cleveland's first lieutenant. This had to do with the fight waged against Indians in the year 1776 in East Tennessee. We have a rather lengthy account of this expedition, found in Ramsey's Annals of Tennessee.

Another item in the same book is as follow: "Reaching the foot of the mountain, they fell in with three or four hundred men, who were creeping along through the woods, desiring to fall in with and join any party that might be going to oppose the enemy." This was in 1780 and just before the battle of King's Mountain. Cleveland was in the thick of that battle that turned the tide of the American Revolution. He was one of the three men who signed the report of the battle to Gen. Gates. This is the last account of Col. Campbell as given by Ramsey, the historian.

Mary Cleveland, born April 22, 1756, died October 15, 1843, and is buried in Spring Hill Cemetery, a few miles east of Nashville on the Gallatin Road.

William J. Cleveland, born July 31, 1835, died March 19, 1888, and is buried in the Spring Hill Cemetery.

A. H. Cleveland, born Nov. 30, 1869, died June 21, 1911, is buried in the same place.

Myrtle (Laycock Cleveland) wife of W. R. Jenkins, born July 21, 1881, died January 30, 1915, and is buried in County Line Cemetery, on the line between McMinn and Monroe Counties, in East Tennessee. In the same cemetery rests the mortal remains of William Cleveland, born Aug. 25, 1879 and died November 10, 1909.

The following records including many Clevelands, are taking from the monuments in family burial grounds located at or near Sweetwater, Philadelphia and Madisonville, in East Tennessee. A partial list follows: Capt. Robert Cleveland, son of John Cleveland, born _____, died _____;

Elder Eli Cleveland, son of Capt. Robert Cleveland, October 1, 1781-November 23, 1859; Polly Ragon Cleveland, wife of Eli Cleveland, July 30, 1786-January 21, 1862; Robert R. Cleveland, September 15, 1808-April 7, 1868; Sydney G. Nelson Cleveland, wife of Robert R. Cleveland, July 15, 1811-October 23, 1884; Aley Mathis Cleveland, May 7, 1813-May 30, 1855; Clarissa Cleveland, September 6, 1815-March 11, 1880; David H. Cleveland, November 5, 1824-August 10, 1900.

Elizabeth Johnson Cleveland, wife of David H. Cleveland, January 5, 1827-December 31, 1882; Jesse F. Cleveland, July 11, 1845-October 27, 1846; Mary Catherine Cleveland Walker, wife of Seth McKinney Walker, January 4, 1847 April, 1906; Louis J. Cleveland, February 17, 1853; Presley Cleveland, son of Capt. Robert Cleveland, September 14, 1779-May 31, 1861; Elizabeth Johnson Cleveland, wife of Presley Cleveland, Feb. 17, 1792-November 20, 1854. We have some other Cleveland dead listed in the cemeteries just mentioned. That these are relatives and members of the same family mentioned in the above letter, there is not a doubt. In fact part of those mentioned in the letter are buried in one of the three cemeteries just listed above. But there seems to have been some error in the counties. Philadelphia and Sweetwater are in Monroe County, Tenn., and Madisonville is in Loudon County. My records are from "Bible Records and Tombstone Inscriptions," by Mrs. Acklen.

The writer finds the following sketch, including a picture of Elder Eli Cleveland, in "Tennessee's Pioneer Baptist Ministers," by J. J. Burnett:

"In the cemetery of the old Sweetwater Church, in Monroe County, not far from Philadelphia, rests the remains of one of the earliest pioneer settlers of the Sweetwater Valley. From his tombstone I copy this inscription: "In memory of Rev. Eli. Cleveland; born October 1, 1781; died November 23, 1859. Born a sinner; saved by grace."

"The Clevelands are a numerous and noted family, both in England and in the United States. A book has been written which gives the history of the family as far back as the year 1200, showing the varied spellings of the name to be, "Cliffland, Clyveland, C l i v e l a n d, Clieveland, Cleaveland, and Cleveland —the last spelling being the one adopted by the members of the family who came to this State." (Lenoir).

"The subject of our sketch was born in Wilkes County, N. C. He was a son of Capt. Robert Cleveland and a nephew of Col. Benjamin Cleveland, both of Revolutionary "fame," making many campaigns together, "fighting the Tories." The father of these two American patriots, the grandfather of Eli Cleveland, it is thought, settled in Orange County, Va., about the year 1700.

"Eli Cleveland was married to a Miss Mary Ragan, of Ashe County, N. C., December 28, 1803. To this union were born eight children, four sons and four daughters.

"He was baptized the third Sabbath in December, 1813. uniting with a Baptist Church in Ashe County, N. C., having obtained a hope in Christ a short time previous. Soon afterward he commenced exhorting and preaching to sinners to "flee the wrath to come." He moved with his family to Knox County, Tenn., in 1817. He was ordained to the ministry in 1818, by request of Beaver Ridge Church. He moved to Sweetwater Valley in 1821. He united with the church at Sweetwater the fourth Saturday in January, 1822. He was chosen moderator of the church soon afterward, and retained the office until his death. This being a newly settled country, he preached much and was instrumental in building up and establishing a number of churches. He also built up a fine estate and became the owner of several negroes. He had some $30,000 loaned out, mostly to farmers, at 6 per cent interest. He gave the ground for the meeting house and cemetery of the old Sweetwater Church, and largely built the house, boarding the hands and furnishing teams, and negroes to drive them, as well as to do other work in connection with the building. The house was built of brick, and Elder Robert Snead was a co-laborer with him in building the house, Brother Snead being an expert hand at moulding and laying brick; and, having charge of the building, put his indellible mark on the house by putting up the front wall with his own hands out of the brick he himself had made.

"Eli Cleveland was a god practical surveyor, and did a good deal of surveying in connection with the entry and settlement of the new and fertile farms in the "Ocoee District," thus helping his neghbors to establish their lines and corners. I have been told the town of Cleveland was named for him; at any rate, it was named for the Cleveland family. As to education, culture, style of preaching, etc., a venerable brother, who knew him well and heard him preach often, characterized him as a "good mathematical man, well versed in the Scriptures, sympathetic, powerful in exhortation, a great peacemaker, and a genuine missionary; he was very simple and plain, and never tried to go into the deep doctrines of the Bible before an audience." As to personal characteristics and appearance, he is described as a man of plain speech, having perfectly black hair (in his younger days), a fine physique, weight about 200 pounds, a fine conversationalist, and possessed of a voice that was full of pathos and tears. "His exhortations and appeals had a most wonderful effect upon his hearers. Repentance was the great theme of his preaching, and hundreds of souls were brought to the Saviour under the influence of his ministry." His brethern sometimes twitted him, good-naturedly, over his money-making, slightly insinuating that he was too "rich" for a preacher. But he had a talent to make money, and Providence had spread out before him a new, rich country, and all he had to do was to use his good sense and go out and possess the land. He was not grasping, however, but was liberal with his means for a man of his day and environment. He not only contributed liberally toward building a house of worship for his own neighborhood, but helped the First Baptist Church of Knoxville build their first meeting-house, gave liberally to the Baptist Female Institute at Jonesboro, and to other causes of religion, as he had opportunity. He gave his time to the churches, never receiving anything from them in the way of remuneration for his services. It is said, however, that on one occasion a collection was taken for him without his knowledge; but, with the consent of the brethren, he took the money donated and with it purchased an overcoat for a poor preacher in the neighborhood.

"In the '30's and '40's, when churches were dividing over the question of "missions" and the "societies of the d a y," Elder Cleveland, by keeping a cool head and steadying the boat, taking a conservative position, as he did, kept his church a unit and steered it successfully through the straits of those stormy days, landing it at length in tranquil waters, on the "missionary side" of the question.

"Elder Eli Cleveland died of heart failure November 23, 1859, aged 78 years, 1 month and 22 days. His last words were addressed to his true yoke-fellow in the ministry, Elder Robert Snead, who was to succeed him in the pastoral care of the old Sweetwater Church: "I shall not long be here; I have given up; I have no desire to stay here at all; this world is nothing to me. I am perfectly resigned to go at any time it is the will of God to take me. I have great reason to be thankful for His goodness toward me. My trust is altogether in Jesus, because I could not trust in anything on earth or in myself. I want you to pray for me that I may go easy, for God answers the prayers of His people. Take care of my little flock." The last words spoken, in thirty minutes he fell asleep in Jesus without a groan or a struggle."

From the reading of the sketch of the life of Eli Cleveland, we learn that Col. Benjamin Cleveland, above mentioned at some length, was an uncle of Eli's.

We have quite a lot of other data about the Cleveland family, largely from Bible records, marriage records and tombstone inscriptions. If Brother Smith desister them, we shall be glad to publish same at an early date.

Dear Vikki,

Thank you for your informative 2/7 letter. I wish that there were more data on William Johnson Cleveland. The enclosed letter was written 61 years ago by Sallie Cleveland from Washburn, Tennessee. (Northwest of Jefferson City, in Grainger County) Two of my aunts from Lebanon, TN, now deceased, decided to look up distant kin and travelled East to visit her five years later (1936) on her farm, spending the night. That's when the photo was taken. You will see that the letter rambles a bit, but linkage by Sallie's family to Robert Cleveland is made. The William J. referred to by Sallie is, undoubtably, William Jackson C., who was O.B. Cleveland's Father. O.B. and Arthur Otis (my grandfather) were brothers. I don't think any claim to William Johnson C. was contemplated at that time. It was not until my Uncle Edwin got into researching for membership into the Society of the Cincinnati that William Johnson C. appeared. (See his attached genealogy) I question the effort of the genealogist who verified his findings. Unfortunately, Edwin died long before I got interested in all this. You will note that he does mention Robert's estate papers, but I have not been able to verify what he referred to.

It is doubtful that Sallie comes through William Johnson C. because she says that her Father contributed substantially to the 3-volume set, and William Johnson C. is not listed. But, clearly, descendents of Robert settled in East Tennessee.

Thank you for your interest in all this. It was very obvious to me when I started with my Uncle's Society of the Cincinnati chart that William was a weak link in the chain. Harry Cleveland has been helpful in clarifying points, and now you and your friend, Debbie. Anything you can uncover will be appreciated.

Sincerely,

Bob

Dear Kinfolks:

Your letter of Oct. 26 recd, & should have been answered at once, but I have been sick, hence the delay.

Yes, I am always glad to give out any information relative to Cleveland Genealogy that I have in my possession After my father & mother died, & all the other relatives, & old people of our settlement likewise, I wanted to know something of our ancestors. I knew a book had been printed, for father contributed quite a bit of information & family records to the publishers. I began a search for the books - learning the Compilers were all dead; could get no trace of their families. The publisher said they printed only enough for those who subscribed for them.

After a long fruitless seach I wrote a relative at Rome Ga. for information She told me no more books could be bought; but as she was in tough luck from a long spell of sickness, she would sell her set of 3 book for forty one dollars. My! Ge whiz!!! & then some!!! I pondered a long time on that price, but finally gave in sent her the money, & have never regretted the price. There are three large books containing three thousand pages. They cover a space of time from the Norman Conquest in England (1066) down to 1899. Almost a thousand years. They are said to be gotten up on the best & only plan of any Genealogy in the world

Now if you can help me get a starting point to work from I may be able to run your line back to the immigration (1635) What is your father's full name? His birth date, where was he born, to whome did he marry, what date, how many children & their names. Any other information might help.

Col. Benjamin Cleveland of N.C. brother of Copt. Robert (my great grand father) had 3 children: John, Absolem, & Gemima Absalom had one son & 6 daughter. Son John or Jack died 1838. married Patty Harrison.

John, son of Benj—, married Catherine (Sloum) Montgomery from Ireland, had 2 sons & 5 daughters. Son, Benjamin born June 13, 1782 or 83. Died in Ga.
A son, Absalom or Fouche, not married died in Ga,

In the index I find 25 named Benjamin. Half this list were no doubt descendants of Col. Ben of N.C. So you see I have little to start on in your line.

Help me & I will continue to try to run out your line.

Full name, birth date, birth place, & marriage give good clue. But tell me all you know of your parents.

No. I have never charged any one for any information I have ever given out, although I receive many letters of inquiry and have often written from 25 to 50 pages of records & history. For 65 pages I received a nice surprise present from a cousin in Va.

My eye sight is getting bad which makes the work more difficult, but I enjoy helping others. I have, for a long time, been trying to collect data on the Ellis Lineage. The line of my great grand father, Lewis Ellis born May 2, 1769, who married Martha Mc Kee, born May 2, 1770. They came to Tenn. from Va. They were emigrants from Ireland or England. But were Scotch-Irish.— Our Cleveland ancestry were Saxon. The first Cleveland on record was Torkil. His son was Uctred. Came to England from Saxony before the Norman Conquest. Settled in northern part of England, called North Riding. The Cleveland Clan at the time of the Conquest owned a strip of country from the English Channel on the East to the west coast. This strip of country was 40 miles wide & was governed by the Cleveland Clan or Tribe

I have a picture of a great church the Clan built. It, after almost a thousand years, is yet beautiful, that is the front part of it. The remainder is ruins. Torkil is buried in a built-in vault under one of the massive front windows, Robert Bruce, King of Scotland, is under the other. (We are connected with Robert Bruce) also King George England's present King.

My great grand mother, Alex, Capt. Bob's wife was descended from Queen Maud, King Henry the second daughter. (I think it was King H. the second) I forget. But I have the full line of that Set

I dont dote on England's rulers very highly. Although the march of Civilization during the past thousand years has improved, & I am sure George & Mary are good people. Victory was the best Ruler Eng. ever had.

I have pictures of many of the old pioneer Clevelands, residences, & noted places connected with them. Family history is a hobby with me. Never had much money to spend in research work, but my heart is in it

No doubt you are getting tired of so much of this, but I forget some times that others may not be so all fired interested as I am, & never know when to say so long & good bye. But please write me a long letter & tell me of yourself, family & home. Do you love dogs? I'm cranky about 'em.

Yours for good luck & lots of it,
Sallie Cleveland.

In 1883, William Jackson Cleveland then residing in Gamaliel, Kentucky, on April 30, gave information to Amund James Cleveland and Horace Gillette Cleveland who are engaged in compiling the three volume publication The Cleveland Family Genealogy. This comprehensive work was completed in 1899. While it is relied upon generally for the generations of Robert E. and his father, William Cleveland, the information is supported and confirmed by census records of Smith County, Tennessee, and by county records. Upon the death of their father, Robert E. Cleveland, in 1843 (their mother having died earlier) the four children of Robert E. were taken into the home of their mater al grandmother Joannah Dillehay (b.1778 in N.C. according to 1850 census).

Dear Vikki,

Thanks for your note and accompanying newsletter. I forwarded the page you included regarding "Jolly Rogering" to a friend of mine -- named Roger. Should give him a new perspective on his name's origin.

The attached is what I have, so far. I copied several original documents from the National Archives on William Jackson Cleveland (4.1). As you will note, he fought on both sides during the Civil War. This made it difficult for his widow to collect her pension -- which she ultimately did. It's all laid out in his folder. Page 2331 of the 3-vol. set shows him and his Father, Robert E., under 19362. William's widow, Nancy J. is found on p. 2278 under 18510-14. My Grandfather and his older brother, Oren, were also part of that household.

The "weak link" Harry Cleveland and I are looking for proof on is William Johnson Cleveland (6.1). Indications are that he was Robert's son, but the evidence is scanty. We know a lot about William. Harry even got copies of some church meeting minutes where he was "read out" for drinking and skipping church. You'll see that later he moved to East Tennessee and gave land for a church. Guess he learned from his mistake. It's hard to oust someone who donates the property.

Wm son of Rev John ? 3 diff. Wms

Hope that all this is of interest to you. Let me know if you need any help.

Sincerely,

Bob

Joseph C who Nash girl whose father founded Nashville

All Gr's Wm.

From a book entitled Smith County History on p. 273 the following information is listed:

> On April 27, 1833, William Parkhurst and John Heeson witnessed a deed for one acre of land from William Cleveland to "Baptist Church on Peyton Creek, it being part of the land on where I now live, for the purpose of erecting a house for public worship for use of said Baptist Church".
> William lived on a 289 acre farm situated on both sides of Peyton Creek.
> He first married Martha Martin, daughter of General Joseph Martin of Martinsville, Virginia.
> William came from Shoal Creek Baptist Church in Tugaloo, Georgia (across the river from the Pendleton district of South Carolina) and was baptised by elder John Cleveland.

A copy of this book is in the National DAR library in Washington, D.C. under "Tennessee Counties - Smith".

William Jackson Cleveland and Nancy Jane Pinckley

William Jackson Cleveland was born July 31, 1835, in Smith County, Tennessee, the eldest child of Robert E. Cleveland and Savannah (Dillehay) Cleveland. His Mother died in 1840, and his Father in 1843. William, along with his two sisters and brother were then raised by their Grandmother, Joannah Dillehay, also from Smith County.

Prior to the outbreak of the Civil War, William married Cynthia Pipen, and had two children, Mary and Martha. He was at that time a schoolteacher.

In May, 1861, H.W. Hart, a resident of Carthage, Tennessee, organized a Confederate force known as "Hart's Independent Company of Confederate Infantry", which William joined and, subsequently, was appointed orderly sergeant. He stayed with the company for about one year and was discharged on a surgeon's certificate of disability. This disability related to throat problems and rheumatism.

On April 25, 1864, his wife, Cynthia, died. Just prior (1/21/1864), apparently having recovered his health, William joined the U.S. Forces as a 2nd lieutenant. He rose to Lt. Col. in the 8th Tennessee Mounted Infantry on 3/18/1865, and remained in this regiment through the end of the War, resigning his commission on 8/17/1865.

Nancy Jane Pinckley was born in Macon County, Tennessee, May 27, 1847, about nine miles from Lafayette. Her Father, Samuel Pinckley, died shortly after her birth. She moved with her Mother and two older sisters to her Grandparents' home, also located in Macon County. Their names were Alexander and Mary Wakefield. Nancy's Mother, Elizabeth, died around 1852. The three girls, Francis, Mary and Nancy, were then raised by their Grandparents until each married.

William Cleveland married Nancy Pinckley on 11/4/1866, near Gibbs Crossroad in Macon County. Their six children were Sarah, Hugh, Horace, William J., Oren Benton and Arthur Otis. William was admitted to the bar on 8/24/1867 and practiced law in Nashville as an attache with the firm of Timmons Bro and Philpot. He continued suffering from rheumatism and throat problems throughout his life. He died 3/19/1888, in Nashville, leaving his wife with the two youngest boys, Oren and Otis. The others had left home or were in the process of doing so.

Nancy stayed close to her children, including her stepdaughter, Mary. She remained in Nashville while raising the two boys. An important part of her income was derived from the pension she got as the widow of a Union officer. The information on this pension (located at the National Archives in Washington, D.C.) indicates that Nancy had many struggles convincing the government of her continuing entitlement to the money.

Towards the end of her life she lived with her youngest son, Otis, and his family in Lebanon, Tennessee. She died from pneumonia on 11/24/31 at age 84.

pleasant memories and a host of friends. An overflow crowd at his funeral attested to the esteem in which he was held. In spite of the bitter cold weather many were at the burial site.

Dr. William West Cleveland

William West Cleveland, son of Willie Waters West and Fred Cleveland, was born June 1, 1921, Carthage, Tennessee. He attended elementary school at Carthage, and was graduated from Smith County High School, Carthage. He received the B.S. degree in chemistry at Harvard University in 1943 and entered Vanderbilt School of Medicine in 1946 from which he graduated in 1950. He interned under Dr. Amos Christie, professor of pediatrics and chairman of the department of pediatrics at Vanderbilt. Dr. Cleveland was a rotating intern at San Francisco Hospital in 1950 and 1951 and a pediatric intern at Vanderbilt in 1951 and 1952. Dr. Cleveland was an assistant resident in pediatrics at St. Louis Children's Hospital from 1953 to 1955 and was a fellow of pediatric endocrinology at Johns Hopkins Hospital from 1958 to 1960. He served in the Medical Corps of the U. S. Air Force from 1953 to 1955 and became an instructor in pediatrics at the Miami University School of Medicine in 1956. He has now (1968) advanced to the rank of full professor. Dr. Cleveland, with his team of colleagues, have now become famous, and received world-wide acclaim for their successful transplant of a thymus.

The Miami Herald in its editions of May 6, 1968 told the full story of the surgery by Dr. Cleveland and his colleagues performed on a baby boy, Donald Curry, who was born without a thymus, a rare birth defect. Tests revealed this fact.

Doctors had told the mother, Mrs. Donald Curry, of Miami, Florida, that the baby could not live without a thymus gland. "They told me I could take Donny home" she said. "I kept saying I wished there was some hope of a transplant . . . they didn't give me much encouragement . . . it was a sort of 'someday we'll be able to do it' thing," Mrs. Curry was quoted as saying. It seems this gland is found in newborn babies and functions in early life and then disappears, but its cells migrate to other parts of the body where they contribute to the normal or moral immunological response to disease and are also responsible for the phenomenon of foreign tissue rejection, so stated two Vanderbilt geneticists, Dr. Walter E. Nance and Dr. Eric Engle. Dr. Nance added Dr. Cleveland's findings, "tend to confirm current ideas about the immune system." The Vanderbilt doctors also said "the Curry child's case appeared to be the 'Swiss type' which requires a transplant of fetal thymic tissue."

Previous transplants had failed due to the use of thymic tissues derived from newborn infants conclude the Vanderbilt geneticists.

Dr. Cleveland performed this particular transplant on the Curry baby at the age of 18 months, watched and waited the reactions for eleven months, before he considered it a success, then announced his successful operation as the first in the world of a thymus transplant. He had written to Dr. Kay in London. "Dissecting something as small as a thymus is pretty tricky and Dr. Kay's the expert," Dr. Cleveland said of the pathologist.

A woman aborted the day Dr. Kay received Dr. Cleveland's letter, and he removed the thymus, placed it in a cold saline solution and sent it to Miami in an ordinary thermos bottle where it arrived at midnight at Miami International Airport. Surgery was begun at 1 a.m. on May 24, 1967 within 24 hours after the thymus had been taken from the fetus. The surgery took only about 20 minutes. "It doesn't matter where it is," says Dr. Cleveland. "It derives the blood supply through the tissue walls. Since it doesn't have to be hooked up to blood vessels, it's easier to implant in a large muscle like this. In time it establishes its own capillary system."
